FACTS

25. At all relevant times herein, the defendants owned and operated ABC Corp. d/b/a Saranrom Thai, a Thai restaurant in Queens, New York.

26. Plaintiff Macario Templo Ortiz was employed at ABC Corp. d/b/a Saranrom Thai, from approximately April 15, 2022, until July, 2023.

27. Mr. Ortiz was employed as a dishwasher, delivery man, food preparer, and cleaning the basement and the kitchen at the end of the day. Mr. Ortiz also bought products and supplies for the kitchen during the work day using his motorcycle.

28. Mr. Ortiz's work was performed in the normal course of defendants' business, was integrated into the business of defendants, and did/does not involve executive or administrative responsibilities.

29. At all relevant times herein, Mr. Ortiz was an employee engaged in commerce and/or in the production of goods for commerce, as defined in the FLSA and its implementing regulations.

30. From April 15, 2022 through December 15, 2022, Mr. Ortiz worked a regular schedule of six or seven days per week, from 11:00 am until 11:30 pm daily, Monday through Sunday; when he worked 6 days he was off either Sunday or Monday.

31. During those first 8 months of his employment by the defendants, Mr. Ortiz worked 7 days per week 50% of the time and 6 days per week 50% of the time.

32. As a result, he was working approximately 87.5 hours per week when he worked 7 days per week, and 75 hours per week when he worked 6 days per week during that period of his employment by the defendant.

33. From January 1st, 2023 to July 2023 Mr. Ortiz worked a regular schedule five days per week, from 11:00 am until 11:30 pm, Monday to Friday, with Saturday and Sunday off.

34. As a result, he was working approximately 62.5 hours per week during that period of his employment by the defendants.

35. Mr. Ortiz was paid weekly in cash at the rate of $120 per day on his first schedule and had a raise to $130 per day from his second schedule, throughout his employment by Defendant.

36. Plaintiff Yadira Gomez Camacho was employed at ABC Corp. d/b/a Saranrom Thai from approximately September 2022, through May 2023.

37. Ms. Camacho was employed as an appetizer preparer.

38. Ms. Camacho's work was performed in the normal course of defendant's business, was integrated into the business of defendant, and did/does not involve executive or administrative responsibilities.

39. At all relevant times herein, Ms. Camacho was an employee engaged in commerce and/or in the production of goods for commerce, as defined in the FLSA and its implementing regulations.

40. From September 2022 through April 2023, Ms. Camacho worked a regular schedule of six to seven days per week, from 11:00 am until 10:00 pm daily.

41. Ms. Camacho worked 7 days per week 50% of the time and 6 days per week 50% of the time during her employment by the defendants.

42. As a result, Ms. Camacho was working approximately 77 hour per week when she worked 7 days per week and 66 hours per week when she worked 6 days per week during her employment by Defendant.

43. Ms. Camacho was paid weekly in cash, at the rate of $120 per day with an increase to $130 per day in December 2022, throughout her employment by Defendants.

44. Each of the plaintiffs received the weekly amounts described herein above for all hours worked each week, regardless of the exact number of hours worked in a given week.

45. As a result, Plaintiffs' effective rates of pay were each below the statutory New York City minimum wage in effect at relevant times.

46. Defendants' failure to pay each Plaintiff an amount at least equal to the New York City minimum wage in effect during relevant time periods was willful, and lacked a good faith basis.

47. Plaintiffs have each been paid in cash throughout their employment by the defendants, and received no paystubs or wage statements of any sort with their pay.

48. In addition, the defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs any overtime "bonus" for hours worked beyond 40 hours in a workweek, in violation of the FLSA, the New York Labor Law, and the supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations.

49. Defendants' failure to pay each Plaintiff the overtime bonus for overtime hours they each worked was willful, and lacked a good faith basis.

50. Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiffs an additional hour's pay at the minimum wage for each day he worked a shift lasting in excess of ten hours from start to finish ("spread-of-hours premium").

51. Defendants failed to provide each Plaintiff with a written notice providing the information required by the Wage Theft Prevention Act - including, inter alia, the defendants' contact information, the regular and overtime rates, and intended allowances claimed - and failed to obtain each plaintiff's signature acknowledging the same, upon each plaintiff's hiring or at any time thereafter, in violation of the Wage Theft Prevention Act in effect at the time.

52. Defendants failed to provide each plaintiff with weekly records of their compensation and hours worked, in violation of the Wage Theft Prevention Act.

53. Upon information and belief, throughout both periods of each plaintiff's employment, both before that time (throughout the Collective Action Period) and continuing until today, defendants have likewise employed other individuals like plaintiffs (the "Collective Action Members") in positions at defendants' restaurant that required little skill, no capital investment, and with duties and responsibilities that did not include any managerial responsibilities or the exercise of independent judgment.

54. Defendants applied the same employment policies, practices, and procedures to all Collective Action Members, including policies, practices, and procedures with respect to the payment of minimum wages and overtime.

55. Upon information and belief, Defendants have failed to pay these other individuals at a rate at least equal to the minimum wage, in violation of the FLSA and the New York Labor Law.

56. Upon information and belief, these other individuals have worked in excess of forty hours per week, yet defendants have likewise failed to pay them overtime compensation of one-and-one-half times their regular hourly rate in violation of the FLSA and the New York Labor Law.

57. Upon information and belief, these other individuals were not provided with required wage notices or weekly wage statements as specified in New York Labor Law §§ 195.1, 195.3, and the Wage Theft Prevention Act.

58. Upon information and belief, while the defendants employed the plaintiffs and the Collective Action Members, and through all relevant time periods, the defendants failed to maintain accurate and sufficient time records or provide accurate records to employees.

59. Upon information and belief, while the defendants employed the plaintiffs and the Collective Action Members, and through all relevant time periods, the defendants failed to post or keep posted a notice explaining the minimum wage and overtime pay rights provided by the FLSA or New York Labor Law.
